

Artists and community connecting to create and celebrate visual arts!

Summer Members Exhibition

It's time again! We are excited about VAST's Annual Juried Members Exhibition for 2007. This is a great opportunity for members to show off their work to viewers from all over the North Texas Region. Our Members Exhibition provides an excellent venue of diverse, high quality fine art created by artists who are a part of our local community. Take in is this Sunday, July 22, 1-5pm at the Center for Visual Arts in Denton.

About our Juror

Maureen Brouillette, a full-time professional painter and teacher in Dallas, will jury VAST's 2007 Members Exhibition. She received her BA in Graphics Arts at the University of Texas at Arlington. Over the last seven years, her art has become widely exhibited and won numerous regional and national awards, including awards from the International Society of Experimental Artists, Society of Watercolor Artists, and Southwestern Watercolor Society. Brouillette has shown in many other venues, including the Arlington Museum of Art and the McKinney Avenue Contemporary.

In 2006 she published articles in Watercolor Magic, The Artist's Magazine, and International Artist. She has two prints featured in the Spring 2007 Crate and Barrel catalog and stores. The Fairmount Gallery in Dallas and Arlington's Upstairs Gallery are her two local galleries. To see examples of her unique mixed media work, check out: www.mbrouillette.com

Brouillette comments: "I'm a painter working with acrylic and mixed media on canvas and paper. Cityscapes and landscapes are my favorite." She combines paint on canvas with collages of her own photographs and drawing to "make a stronger statement." Her work "combines architectural images with abstract shapes and organic line-work. My intent is to use recognizable subject matter in a slightly ambiguous way, because I want the final piece to be open to individual interpretation."

VAST Partners with Local Businesses for Exhibitions

VAST members currently have three opportunities to exhibit work locally. Barnes & Noble Booksellers (B&N), The Chestnut Tree (CT), and Wells Fargo Bank (downtown branch) (WF) are all hosting exhibits of VAST members' work. These exhibits are open to all VAST members.

The Chestnut Tree accommodates 15-20 works; Wells Fargo has space for about 15 works; and Barnes & Noble has room for 6-10 pieces. The number depends on the size of the works. We are featuring two artists at a time at CT, one artist at B&N, and we can feature 7 to 15 artists depending on the interest at WF. Art work may be for sale; you will be asked to provide/prepare labels with title of work, media, price, and your contact information.

If you are interested in one or more of the exhibition opportunities, make contact with the following:

Possible Partnership with Denton Poet's Assembly

The Denton Poet's Assembly is interested in combining efforts with VAST to have an exhibition of poetry and art. The art will consist of illustrations created by VAST members of poems by local poets. The process can take one of two forms: poets may find a piece of art that inspires them to write a poem, or artists may read a poem that inspires them to do a painting. VAST has invited members of the Poet's Assembly to visit our Members Exhibition and to go on-line and look at members' work on our website. The Poet's Assembly will make poems available for interested members to read some time in the months to come. Plans will be finalized this summer, and more information will be forthcoming in the September newsletter.

2007-2008 Monthly Programs (Fall)

Letter From the President

Greetings VAST friends!

I hope you are having a fantastic summer and that you are as excited as I am about the upcoming VAST year and the many wonderful events planned.

Please join me in extending a warm welcome to our incoming Board of Directors. While some of the faces will be familiar, others will be new to you. A compilation of biographical information is included in this issue of Vision so you will know more about the talented individuals serving this year.

You may also notice that VAST has made some staffing changes for 2007-2008. Jo Williams has been hired as our Executive Director and Ingrid Scobie will work as Assistant Director for PR/Marketing and Fundraising. I believe these strategic staffing decisions will help VAST sustain the amazing growth we have experienced over the last four years.

I'd also like to formally welcome aboard our new Vision editor, Caroline Latawicz, a Graphic Communications student at UNT. She did a fabulous job putting this first issue together, managing to squeeze in all of the exciting news as well as information on the major policies affecting members. I think you will find this issue both interesting and helpful!

Remember, the Annual Members Exhibition take in is this Sunday at the Center for Visual Arts. I hope you have been preparing your pieces to enter. See you Sunday!

Always,

Monthly Mini-Shows

VAST members are encouraged to bring a piece of art to our monthly meetings for a member's choice competition. We vote on our favorite pieces during the break. At the conclusion of the program, we name "Artist of the Month" to our first place winner, who receives a $25 gift certificate from Azel Art Supply redeemable at any of their locations. The second place winner receives a $15 gift certificate from Azel. The mini-show does not take place at the meeting when we have our High School Art Competition. At the May meeting, all "Artists of the Month" bring back their winning piece, and from these pieces, we vote and select our "Artist of the Year."

VAST Artists' Day Out

VAST offers an opportunity for any members to meet once a month at the Center for Visual Arts for a non-instructed session to create in whatever media they choose and to be with other artists. Members may participate for the annual fee of $10 for ten sessions ($1 per session). If you would like to join the VADO group beginning in September, make your check payable to VAST and send it to:

Mary Emerson
1001 Emerald Sound Blvd.
Oak Point, TX 75068

The next summer session is August 16 from 9:00am-12:30pm. Even if you are not a current paid member, you may come to that session and pay $1. VADO coordinator, Mary Emerson invites "Any and all to come down that morning! Bring your pencils, paints, pastels, oils, or JUST YOURSELF, and have a nice outing with your fellow artist friends."
